

ANDREW GOODWIN

504.592.4746 ▶ ANDREW.GOODWIN@EY.COM

BACKGROUND

Mr. Goodwin graduated from Loyola University New Orleans in May 2007 with a Bachelor of Accountancy with degrees in Accounting and International Business. After graduating from Loyola, he began working for Ernst & Young, LLP as a staff accountant in the Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services practice. While at Ernst & Young, Mr. Goodwin has worked on a variety of projects, including stock options investigations and regulatory compliance reviews. He has recently completed the Uniform Certified Public Accountants exam and is currently awaiting certification from the Louisiana State Board of CPAs.

EDUCATION

Loyola University New Orleans
Bachelor of Accountancy

New Orleans, LA
May 2007

- Double Major: Accounting and International Business
- summa cum laude

EXPERIENCE

Ernst & Young, LLP
Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services
Staff Accountant

New Orleans, LA
August 2007 to Present

- Collaborate on engagements involving regulatory matters, contract disputes, fraud investigations, FCPA compliance reviews, insurance claims, and other damage calculations
- Create and manage complex Access databases and Excel financial models
- Maintain direct contact with multiple client representatives in order to facilitate the execution of work plans
- Assist with the assessment of client needs and with the development of engagement planning tools, such as work plans and budgets
- Delegate and direct specific aspects of client engagements to interns and other staff while maintaining a cohesive working dynamic

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

- Passed all sections of the Certified Public Accountants exam, awaiting certification from the Louisiana State Board of CPAs

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, member
- Council of Petroleum Accountants Societies, member